Dear friend,

I know that my voice is one of many right now asking for help. I didn't really want to send this letter because of the many other good and worthy ministry needs around us that are struggling.

But I must let you know that we are facing a dramatic impact on the finances of this ministry. We have only been able to serve one camp so far this year. Our summer season brings in 80% of our yearly budget and we have lost this potential income. I just wanted you to know so that you could pray for us please.

It's a blessing to have a relationship with you and I consider it a huge privilege that you would allow me to partner with you in your life, family, and church.

Thank you for all your love and support. May your memories of Hartstone bring you joy. I hope that you've been able to experience the love of Christ when you have been here. God bless

Love, Dave Dick
